DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed on 08-28-03 has been received and entered in the case. New ground of rejections necessitated by the amendment is set forth below.

Claim Objections

Claims 3 and 8 are objected to because of the following informalities: the recitation “ and a capacitance element connected to the crystal oscillator, and the oscillation frequency varies by changing the value of the capacitance element” is not correct because none of the drawings of the present application shows a capacitor that has variable capacitance

Claims 17 and 18 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 4, 5, 6, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ferrant (US Pat. 6,556,092).

Regarding claims 1 and 6, figure 2 of Ferrant shows an oscillator comprising:
two complimentary transistors MP1, MN1 connected in cascode and coupled between a power terminal and the ground;
a gate of MN1 is connected to the ground via a capacitor (14);

a resistor (20) connected between transistor (MN1) and the ground.

Figure 2 of Ferrant does not show that there is a capacitor connected between the power terminal Vdd and the ground, the buffer (MN1) is AC- connected to the output and the complementary transistors of Ferrant are not a complementary pair of bipolar transistors. However, it is old and well known in the art that the bipolar transistors and the FET transistors are exchangeable and bipolar transistors are faster than FET transistors; a capacitor that is coupled between the power terminal and the ground will ground the power terminal at high frequencies and the AC coupling capacitor is used for blocking the direct current (US Pat. 6,593,822, col. 3, lines 34-38; US Pat. 5,805,028, col. 3, lines 35-40). Therefore, it would have been obvious to those skilled in the art to couple a capacitor between the power terminal (Vdd) and the ground of the power terminal to ground the power terminal at high frequencies, to incorporate a capacitor to the output terminal to block the direct current and to replace the complementary pair of complementary FET transistor (MN1, MP1) of Ferrant with a pair of complementary bipolar transistors for having better switching speed at high frequencies.

Regarding claims 4 and 9, it is obvious that all the oscillators which are designed to provide stable output frequencies are temperature-compensated types.

Regarding claims 5 and 10, it is obvious that the complementary transistors of the oscillator are built in a single package.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2816

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references are cited as of interest because it shows some common-mode detection circuit analogous to the claimed invention.
